

We need your skills to improve Tamil web presence!!!

DesiCrew is a Rural BPO initiative that is incubated at IIT- Madras. We set up IT enabled service centers in rural areas, employ and train local people to meet the back office demands of clients. With a social mission driving our business, we are focused on harnessing our business model for generating wealth in the rural economy. Our clients include Insurance companies, Leading Corporates and Government where we offer services at quality levels benchmarked to global standards. DesiCrew takes rural graduates so as to offers employment within their villages and make them self-reliant.

We have embarked on a time bound project to increase Tamil article content on the web.

If you are

- Passionate about Tamil
- Can spare your time and expertise
- Professional translator
- Can work with web tools
- Have experience in editing

We have an opportunity for you to work from your convenient place at your convenient time.

Even if you do not have prior experience in translation, but are a quick learner, you can still try!

You need to edit the translated content in tamil according to a particular style guide. We will share a sample with you and then decide the amount of words which you can do. Compensation will be on par with the market. The project closes on August 5th 2010.

So, Hurry....You can reach us at hr@desicrew.in
